DR. WILLARD J. DRAPER

Dr. Willard J. Draper was the son of Charles H. and Nettie Harris Draper. He was born January 4, 1921, at Layton, Utah. He was accidentally killed by a gunshot wound June 4, 1958, and was buried in Heber City Cemetery.

On June 13, 1945, he married Helen Martin. They were the parents of three children: Martin Berry, Diane, and Robert C. Draper.

Dr. Draper was a graduate of Davis

p 350

High School, Weber College, Brigham Young University and the Northwestern University Medical School at Chicago, Ill. He interned at the LDS Hospital, Salt Lake City.

He was the owner of Heber Hospital and Clinic and co-owner of the Mt. Spa Resort, and had resided in Heber City 12 years. He was a kind and understanding person and was loved by the people of Wasatch County.

His interest in gardening made his home grounds a beauty spot in Heber. He took an active part in civic affairs. His art of cooking was unexcelled. The Smorgasbord luncheons he prepared were the finest of their kind. He did all the buying and most of the cooking. Hundreds of dollars were raised through these dinners for polio drives.

He loved to fish and hunt on his days away from the hospital. He was a capable and useful person. p 351
